

GMEA Meeting March 26, 2015

Regina Williams, Assistant Director of HR at the BOE, talked about ADP and answered questions.

At 4:40 pm the General Meeting started

The Union currently has 1 filed Grievance, and there is another one pending filing.

Mediation continues to assist employees at the Health Dept. Mediation is being used to try and avoid a lawsuit.

There is a new job opening up at the Police Dept. It will be for a Scheduling Coordinator.

There will be an opening for an AA at Greenwich Library also

The union is also currently helping to place an AA whose job was cut to part time.

Angela explained that the union is quite busy in helping many of our members with various things that come up. It is not always visible, as much of this goes on daily, but the union is constantly busy with various issues that affect our members.

If anyone is interested in running for a position on the Union Exec Board, they should contact one of the Exec Board members to give their name.

In the next few months, the union will also be looking at changing some of the language in the By-laws. If anyone is interested in serving on the By-law revision committee please contact Angela Giordano or Linda Marini

The meeting was adjourned at 5:05 pm
